Put CitiFinancial Auto's Strengths to Work for You!

Take this opportunity to leverage an existing National Remarketing Network of repossession agents and auto auctions to secure and sell your vehicles.

Every repossessed vehicle is inspected by the auto auctions, using CitiFinancial Auto standards, to review all equipment and uncover reconditioning opportunities that will enhance vehicle resale value. A CitiFinancial Auto auction sales representative reviews every vehicle prior to sale to ensure all reconditioning has been completed and meets expectations for quality.

Qualified vehicles will be offered under one of our proven certification programs for added returns. CitiFinancial Auto offers its clients premier auction lane placement with live representation during each auction sale.

Using CitiFinancial Auto as your remarketing team will lead to faster sales and higher net returns on your assets.
